VETERINARY EXAMINATION

A qualified Veterinary Surgeon shall examine each exhibit. He shall refuse to allow any cat to enter the exhibition if, in his opinion, it is suffering from any contagious or infectious disease or has external parasites, or which has been treated or prepared for exhibition in contravention of the rules and regulations of the CCC(Inc) . His decision in this regard shall be final. Should the Veterinary Surgeon reject one of an exhibitors exhibits for reasons of contagious or infectious disease or evidence of external parasites, all that exhibitors entries may be rejected at the discretion of the Veterinary Surgeon. No person may exhibit a cat which has been exposed to the risk of any infectious or contagious disease during the period dating at least 12 days prior to the exhibition. It is expected that all exhibits should have appropriate immunisations prior to the show.

BENCHING

Curtains (coloured/white) are allowed during judging and, if required, a hot water bottle completely enclosed. Litter trays to be preferably plastic and rectangular in shape. No foodstuffs are allowed in cages before completion of judging. Cages must be kept clean by exhibitors. One small toy per cage is permissible.

WITHDRAWAL OF ENTRIES

When a person withdraws a cat entered in a show, they shall be required at the time of withdrawal to furnish a written explanation to the Show Secretary, or persons running the show, which shall be forwarded to the CCC (INC). Where written explanation is not produced, or the CCC (INC) considers the explanation to be unsatisfactory, the CCC (INC) may, at its discretion, request a Veterinary Certificate of clearance within 7 days, naming the withdrawn cat(s). Where a certificate is requested by the CCC (INC) and not produced within 7 days, the person(s) concerned shall be considered as being in enforced quarantine until such time as the certificate is produced.

JUDGING

29.7 At the time of judging no person shall be allowed in the judging area save the judges and the properly appointed officials and stewards.

A judge's decision on the merit of the exhibit shall be final unless such decision is contrary to the rules and regulations of the CCC (Inc). Judges are empowered and instructed not to award any prize, challenge or award of merit certificate to any exhibit which they consider is not of sufficient merit. Any cat which cannot be taken from its cage by the judge or steward will not be judged.

OWNER'S RISK

The Club will be most anxious for the care and safety of cats sent for exhibition, or any other property entrusted to it, but it must be understood distinctly by exhibitors and all other persons, that the Club will not be responsible for the loss, detention of or damage to any cat or property whether arising from accident, or other cause whatsoever, or from any act or omission of itself, its officers, agents servants or others
