

Mr Svein Helgesen – Norway

His first breed was English Cocker Spaniels, then later Lhasa Apso's. He also breed Griffons and Tibetan Teriers.

He now has a Pomerian, but no longer shows or breeds.

He had 2 dogs he was very proud of:

Lhasa Apso -Saxonspring Fol De Rol become top winning dog all breeds in Norway 1986. Then his own breeding – English Cocker Spaniel Tanac New Facion who become runner up top winning dog in Norway 1984, he also won top winning Cocker Spaniel 5 years in Norway.

He has had breed 7 Champions, also exported dogs ,mostly in Europe.

Mr Helgesen always loved animals from when he was a child, when he was 19 he brought his first English Cocker Spaniel this was the start of him to be interested in dogs and the dog world.

Mr Helgesen was Chairman for 7 years of the Toy Club in Norway also director in Norwegian Spaniel Club and then in NKK Exhibition committee.

He received his first judges licence in 1992 and in 2007 become All Breeds.

He has judged in most of the European countries, Thailand, Australia, New Zealand, Brazil, Argentina, Canada, South Africa and China.

He is very much appreciates the fact that he is able to judge (our best friends in world) -the dogs, nothing can compare to this.

When he judges he looks for type, balance of the dog, then head and expression, movement, temperament, structure and health.

Now he has retired, he worked as therapist/nurse, mainly in psychiatric/drug problems.

He loves travelling, see others culture, food and meets people from all over the world.
