MEDAL USAGE

The Royal Tasmanian Fine Food Award medals (Gold, Silver or Bronze) may only be applied to the product that won the medal. It may not be applied to any other products. Provided that the ingredients and method of production remain the same as the day a medal winning entry was entered, the artwork (without change) can be used on that product. If a product has continued to win Gold, Silver or Bronze for consecutive years then this may be reflected on the product by use of joined medals. Medal Artwork can only be obtained through the RAST.

Royal Tasmanian Fine Food Awards Medal Style Guide

The Royal Tasmanian Fine Food Awards medals are awarded to recognise and promote the best products available in Australia to the general public. Our medals are a symbol of product excellence.

JUDGING PROCESS

JUDGES

Judging panels consist of three judges and one associate from a range of backgrounds including but not limited to:

- Food manufacturers
- Food technologists and educators
- Product retailers
- Chefs and hospitality professionals
- Experienced Fine Food Awards stewards
- Food writers and food critics
- Other food specialists

Judging will take place at various event times throughout the year.

- Judges are assigned and invited to judge by their qualifications and expertise of their section. Each class will be assigned a judging panel or judging panels where the entries will be blind tasted.
- Each product is scored out of 100 points. The products are not compared to one another but judged on their own merit.
- The highest scoring products from each class (Gold) are put aside for the Champion and Reserve Champion trophy judging of that section.
- All Champion winners are reassessed by a panel of judges selected by the Chief Judge to determine the winner of the Richard Langdon Trophy – Best Exhibit in Show.

Medals will be awarded as follows:

Gold	90 – 100 points
Silver	82 – 89 points
Bronze	74 – 81 points

The Head Judge has the power to disqualify, dismiss or transfer (out of class) as being ineligible for judging, any product/Exhibit which in their opinion does not comply with the Royal Tasmanian Fine Food Awards Regulations. Such decision will be final.
