EXHIBITOR INFORMATION

ROYAL TASMANIAN FINE FOOD AWARDS – SUPPORTING THE AUSTRALIAN FOOD INDUSTRY

The Royal Agricultural Society of Tasmania is a not-for-profit organisation that can trace its history back to 1821 when a group of Van Diemen's Land residents corresponded with the Official Secretary and gained approval for the establishment of a Society for the protection of animals. Since then, the Society has broadened its vision and now supports the Australian food and wine industry with Exhibitor competitions that highlight the all the incredible produce Australia has to offer. The Royal Tasmanian Fine Food Awards is committed to engaging the very best professionals as Judges and Stewards, providing a professional environment for networking and development to all participants, resulting in huge benefits for the food industry at large.

REASONS TO ENTER

ROYAL TASMANIAN FINE FOOD AWARDS

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW BEFORE ENTERING

- To be eligible for the Royal Tasmanian Fine Food Awards the Exhibit must be submitted by (a) the producer of the Exhibit that is entered, or (b) a brand owner or retailer provided that the producer of the contracted product is listed.
- Trophy status will recognise the producer of the Exhibit and the brand owner/retailer.
- All Exhibits must be produced in Australia and commercially available at the time of entry.
- All Exhibits must comply with the requirements of the Australian Food Standards Code for both product and packaging. Exhibits not complying with the Australian Standard will be disqualified.
- No single Exhibit may be entered in more than one Class. The same product can only be entered once into the Awards, this includes identical products that come in different packaging sizes.
- Entrants are responsible for correctly labelling their Exhibits and ensuring prompt, food safe delivery of products by the delivery due date and before judging commences. All Exhibits become the property of the RAST.
- All Exhibits must have the full ingredients list and the correct Exhibit Label provided by the RAST which shows the Use by Date, Class Number and unique Exhibit Number.

HOW WE USE YOUR PRODUCTS

In addition to samples being used for judging, samples are also used for promotional purposes including at the annual Fine Wine & Dine Awards Dinner, and in displays of trophy winning product. Exhibit stock remaining after the Royal Tasmanian Fine Food Award judging will remain the property of the Royal Agricultural Society of Tasmania (RAST).

OBLIGATIONS FOR GOLD MEDAL AND CHAMPION WINNERS

Award winning producers may be requested to provide reasonable quantities of their award winning product(s) to be featured at the Fine Wine & Dine Awards Dinner in November and other RAST events. Terms of supply will be decided between the Exhibitor and RAST. The supply of winning products will enable the producer to gain exposure at the events which is attended by industry professionals, sponsors, judges and the general public.

MEDAL USAGE

The Royal Tasmanian Fine Food Award medals (Gold, Silver or Bronze) may only be applied to the product that won the medal. It may not be applied to any other products. Provided that the ingredients and method of production remain the same as the day a medal winning entry was entered, the artwork (without change) can be used for a maximum of 3 years from the time the results catalogue is published online. If a product has continued to win Gold, Silver or Bronze for consecutive years then this may be reflected on the product by use of joined medals. Medal Artwork can only be obtained by request through the RAST by emailing events@hobartshowground.com.au after the official results catalogue has been published online.

ROYAL TASMANIAN FINE FOOD AWARDS MEDAL STYLE GUIDE

The Royal Tasmanian Fine Food Awards medals are awarded to recognise and promote the best products available in Australia to the general public. Medals cannot be modified or altered from the original artwork but can be proportionally scaled to meet label size requirements. Our medals are a symbol of product excellence and award winners are entitled to apply the medal artwork to further promote their achievement. Suggested applications include: product packaging, stickers, advertising, signage, websites, social media and any other marketing materials.

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY AND SHOW REGULATIONS

Exhibitors should familiarise themselves with the Conditions of Entry and Show regulations outlined below before entering:

1. Definition of Producer

A Producer means the registered premises that manufacture the product entered into the Fine Food Awards. All Exhibitors who have product/s manufactured or packaged under contract must identify the Producer on their entry application.

2. Definition of Retail

A Retail Producer means the Exhibit is labelled in accordance with the Australian Food Standards Code and manufactured in commercial quantities for retail sale.

3. Recognition

Producer and the Exhibitor Eligibility of Products

At the time of entry, each Exhibit entered by an Exhibitor must be the property of the Exhibitor and available commercially in Australia.

Exhibits must be as from a normal production run of a commercial product available to purchase within Australia.

Spot audits may be conducted comparing commercially purchased samples with entries. If a comparison highlights any significant variation, then that entry may be disqualified.

4. Definition of Exhibitor

An Exhibitor means a person, firm, partnership, company or body corporate, which in the opinion of the RAST and RHFFA Committee is the following:

- (a) Manufacture or processor
- (b) Has product/s manufactured or packaged under contract.
- (c) Will be recognised in all official announcements of results of the Royal Tasmanian Fine Food Awards. The result will recognise the Exhibit, Producer and the Exhibitor.

5. Multiple entries

A product can only be entered once in the Awards. Exhibitors may submit multiple entries consisting of similar but non-identical products (including in one class). However, a specific product may only be entered once. This includes identical products available and sold in various size samples.

6. Commercial Title (Commercial Brand Name)

Exhibitors are required to enter the product under the normal commercial brand name on the application form. Commercial titles will be published in the results catalogue and used for promotional material. Commercial title includes, but is not limited to, the brand name and product description as it appears on the Exhibitor's primary commercial label. Organic Produce – Exhibitor products must be accompanied by documentation identifying the product as a certified organic food product.

7. Third Party Manufacturing

Entry into the Royal Tasmanian Fine Food Awards is mostly from the Producers of Exhibits; however a Brand Owner or Retailer may also enter a product manufactured under contract by a third party, but ONLY if the Producer is also listed. Trophy status will recognise the Producer of the Exhibit and the Brand Owner or Retailer.

8. Delivery and Labelling

All entered Exhibits must adhere to the following criteria:

- (a) All entries received by RAST must display the RAST provided Fine Food Award Exhibit Label. The RAST identification labels will be emailed to Exhibitors after entries close and will indicate class information and exhibit number.
- (b) It is the Exhibitors responsibility to ensure the correct label is attached to each entry. Entries not carrying the RAST provided Fine Food Awards Label or incorrectly labelled entries may be excluded from judging.
- (c) A Minimum of TWO (2), 500g samples to be submitted unless otherwise stated. One (1) sample must be commercially labelled with use by or best before date stated. All remaining samples should have the RAST provided Exhibit Label with the Class Number and Exhibit Number and all branding removed or covered. The use by or best before date must be stated.
- (d) All products entered must be processed in appropriately approved premises and comply with the requirements of the Australia Food Standards Code. Any entry that does not conform may be disqualified.
- (e) It is the responsibility of the Exhibitor to check the entry information on the Exhibit List report is correct. This report reflects the information the Exhibitor provided on the entry form. If incorrect or a mistake has been made, please contact the RAST immediately to avoid any Exhibit being disqualified.
- (f) The accuracy of Exhibits entered is the sole responsibility of the Exhibitor. Please read the schedule carefully. Exhibits entered incorrectly or entered in the wrong class may be disqualified or marked down accordingly by the judging panel.
- (g) All food must be transported in accordance with Food Standard Australia New Zealand guidelines, which includes keeping the food protected from contamination and if the food is potentially hazardous or perishable, keeping it cold (5° C or colder) or hot (60° C or hotter).
- (h) If the product contains a Chilli component, a gradient of heat must be added to the label.

1 = Mild, 2 = Medium, 3 = Hot, 4 = Extra Hot

9. Stock

The RAST will not accept any liability for loss or damage to any Exhibit. All Exhibits received become the property of the RAST.

10. Results

The decision of the judges will be final, and no correspondence will be entered.

ROYAL TASMANIAN FINE FOOD AWARDS

- (a) Exhibitors may use the results of these awards in advertising and on packaging for their awarded products.
- (b) The Royal Agricultural Society of Tasmania reserves the right to amend or amalgamate classes if insufficient entries are received in any one class.
- (c) Awards are made in each class at the sole discretion of the judges. More than one Exhibit may receive a Gold, Silver or Bronze in any class. The gold medal winning Exhibit with the highest points will win overall Champion Trophy award of that section. A Champion Trophy may not be awarded if no gold medals are achieved in that section.
- (d) Entries will be awarded points as outlined in the Judging Criteria for each Class. Exhibitors who win a medal will be sent a certificate for Gold, Silver and Bronze. Sashes will only be provided to Silver, Gold and Reserve Champion winners. Certificates and Sashes will be sent to Exhibitors by post in the weeks following the release of the results catalogue for that section.
- (e) All Champion winners become finalists and are reassessed by a new panel of judges to determine the winner of the Richard Langdon Trophy for Best Exhibit in Show. All Major Trophy Award winners will be announced and presented at the annual Fine Wine & Dine Awards Dinner on Friday 28th November 2025.
- (f) Section Champion winners will be announced on The Royal Tasmanian Fine Food Awards social media pages the day after judging concludes. A results catalogue with all the medal and Champion trophy winners will be emailed to Exhibitors via EDM and published on the Hobart Showground website the week following final judging of that section (www.hobartshowground.com.au). Champion winners will receive a trophy and Reserve Champion winners will receive a sash in the weeks following the release of the results catalogue. Excluding the Dairy awards which are announced at the annual DIAA Tasmania Annual Awards night. Please follow us on social media to stay up to date on all announcements.

11. Power to alter / transfer

- (a) Alter the Closing Date of the Awards.
- (b) The Royal Agricultural Society of Tasmania (RAST) reserves the right to amend or amalgamate classes if insufficient entries are received in any one class.
- (c) The RAST may at its discretion and without the prior approval of the Exhibitor disqualify or transfer an Exhibit into a different class than was stated on the application for entry if in its opinion or the judge's opinion the Exhibit has been entered into the wrong class.
- (d) Rule that an Exhibit or Exhibitor may not compete or is ineligible to compete.
- (e) Alter the date and/or time at which the judging is scheduled to take place.
- (f) Alter a judge scheduled to Judge at the event.
- (g) Cancel the event

12. Interference by Exhibitor

An Exhibitor, their invitees or agents, must not consult, influence or interfere with a Judge or attempt to consult, influence or interfere with a Judge or do any other thing which may interfere with the Judge's freedom of choice or judgement.

JUDGING PROCESS & TROPHIES

JUDGES

Judging panels will consist of up to three judges and may also include one associate judge from a range of backgrounds including but not limited to:

- Food manufacturers
- Food technologists and educators
- Product retailers
- Chefs and hospitality professionals
- Experienced Fine Food Awards stewards
- Food writers and food critics
- Other food specialists

Judging will take place at various event times throughout the year.

- Judges are assigned and invited to judge by their qualifications and expertise of their section. Each class will be assigned a judging panel or judging panels where the entries will be blind tasted.
- Each product is scored out of 100 points. The products are not compared to one another but judged on their own merit.
- The highest scoring gold medal winning product from each class are put aside for the Champion judging of that section.
- All Champion winners from each section become finalists and are reassessed by a new panel of judges to determine the winner of the Major Trophy Awards, including the Richard Langdon Trophy for Best Exhibit in Show.

Medals will be awarded as follows:

Gold	90 – 100 points
Silver	82 – 89 points
Bronze	74 – 81 points

The Head Judge and Chief Steward together have the power to disqualify, dismiss or transfer (out of class) as being ineligible for judging, any product/Exhibit which in their opinion does not comply with the Royal Tasmanian Fine Food Awards Regulations. Such decision will be final.
